

2019 PPCI Ann Kanaga Emerging Development Professional (EDP) Scholarship

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Each year Philanthropy Partners of the Cape and Islands (PPCI) provides an opportunity to encourage growth in the Development Field in our community. This year PPCI will be offering two $500 scholarships, open to all development professionals working on Cape Cod and the Islands, regardless of years in the industry or size of organization. All are encouraged to apply.

The scholarship includes the cost of attendance and parking fees, or online registration fees, for conferences in Philanthropy at a site of your choice or online. The scholarship will cover costs up to $500 and attendance must be by 12/31/2019. EDP Award recipients will provide an update to PPCI with an explanation of the philanthropy conference(s) they attended by 12/31/2019. The EDP Scholarship should not be applied to Philanthropy Day on Cape Cod. Scholarships specific to Philanthropy Day are awarded separately.

The EDP Award recipients will also receive a one year complimentary membership to PPCI with their scholarship!

To be considered for this scholarship, please email your completed application to Pauline Neves at pneves@hopehealthco.org - or mail to - EDP Application, c/o Pauline Neves, Philanthropy Partners of the Cape and Islands, P.O. Box 41, Yarmouthport, MA 02675. Scholarship applications for the EDP are due on Monday, January 14, 2019.

Please fill out the reverse side of this application and include a brief explanation about how a scholarship to a philanthropy conference would benefit your professional development.

Additionally, please include a letter from the leader of your organization (preferably your Executive Director or Board President) expressing how your attendance will better serve your agency. The application will be considered incomplete without this letter.

Once again, the scholarship applications for the EDP are due Monday, January 14, 2019.

Thank you!
